

December 2018 – Monthly Report

---

December Trainings:
Chief Beam – LEIN TAC for Law Enforcement
Officer Douglas – Court Testimony & Petition Writing

On December 1, 2018 – Chief Beam participated in the Annual Shop with a Hero event at Meijer of Big Rapids. 36 children from Osceola County participated. Each child receives a $100 to spend on Christmas gifts for their family and Meijer donates a cart full of food and merchandise to each child's family.

On December 13, 2018 - Chief of Police John Beam Jr., the Deputy Chief of the Evert Area Fire Department Ralph Carlson, Assistant City Manager Sarah Dvoracek and Evert High School Principal Jessica Kolenda assembled to present a Life Saving Award. Nichole Roys, a senior at Evert High School, administered the Heimlich Maneuver to a 10-year-old student who was choking on a piece of hard candy. It happened on the bus ride home from school on December 4, 2018 - when students began to yell to the bus driver that Austin Tennant was choking, Nichole immediately took action and dislodged the obstruction, saving the young boy's life. The Evert High School student body, City of Evert employees, city council members as well as members from Nichole's and Austin's families applauded Nichole as Chief Beam presented Nichole with the Life Saving Award. Austin thanked Nichole for saving his life and his family presented Nichole with a thank-you gift.
