Section 7.2.4 of the Zoning Ordinance:

A plan shall be approved if it contains the information required by the Zoning Ordinance and is in compliance with the Zoning Ordinance and the conditions imposed under the ordinance, other city planning documents other applicable ordinances, and state and federal statutes.

Conditions:

The Zoning Administrator and/or the Planning Commission may impose reasonable conditions on any site plan approval. The conditions may include conditions necessary to ensure that public services and facilities affected by a proposed land use or activity will be capable of accommodating increased service and facility loads caused by the land use or activity, to protect the natural environment and conserve natural resources and energy, to insure compatibility with adjacent uses of land, and to promote the use of land in a socially and economically desirable manner.

Conditions imposed shall:

- Be designed to protect natural resources, the health, safety, and welfare, as well as the social and economic well-being, of those who will use the land use or activity under consideration, residents and landowners immediately adjacent to the proposed land use or activity, and the community as a whole.
- Be related to the valid exercise of the police power and purposes which are affected by the proposed use or activity.
- Be necessary to meet the intent and purpose of the zoning requirements, be related to the standards established in the zoning ordinance for the land use or activity under consideration, and be necessary to ensure compliance with those standards. The breach of any condition shall be grounds for revoking the site plan approval.
